EXPLAINING THE IDEAS of the FRONT COVER

This is the fifth painting in a series of five entitled The Course of Empire by Thomas Cole. The complete series depicts freedom, and then glory; when that fails, wealth, vice, corruption, destruction and finally Desolation (the painting featured on the front cover).

James Fenimore Cooper writes: “In the ...fifth [painting], an avenging Providence ...whispers through silent desolation ... ‘It is done!’ ... Such is the expression of the solemn twilight, the motionless autumnal foliage, the quiet footsteps of encroaching waters, the solitary heron and her nest upon the crumbling column. By the beams of the moon, now rising over the tranquil ocean, and by the last gleams of day, the poet lights the beholder to the tomb of Empire, and gives him voiceless solitude, in which to hear, from mournful ruins and triumphant nature, the moral of the strain.”

What could have caused such shifts in American life?

REFORMATION - ENLIGHTENMENT

Comparing the Thoughts and Ideas

American life as described by Alexis de Tocqueville was quite different from 21st century America! Originally, American society rested upon the foundation of the Reformation. Hilary Clinton, shortly after her husband became the President of the United States of America, made this statement: "We have to think in new ways." This new way of thinking rests upon a different foundation — the foundation of the Enlightenment. To better understand the shifts in our society, it is important to review the differences between the basic ideas of the Reformation and the Enlightenment.

REFORMATION THINKING

What words would you use to describe Reformation thinking?

ENLIGHTENMENT THINKING

Dr. Schaeffer writes, "The utopian dream of the Enlightenment can be summed up by five words: reason, nature, happiness, progress, and liberty."

Reason • Nature • Happiness
Progress • Liberty
